

Subject & Predicate Practice

The subject is the person, place, or thing that is being described.
The predicate tells something about the subject.

Example:

Sarah	skipped along the road to school.
-------	-----------------------------------

 Subject Predicate

Directions: Write an "S" next to the sentence if the underlined portion is the subject.
Write a "P" next to the sentence if the underlined portion is the predicate.

1. _____ Golf carts are fun to drive.
2. _____ I love riding roller coasters at the amusement park.
3. _____ The entire family showed up for the banquet.
4. _____ No one remembered grandpa's birthday.
5. _____ The runner stopped to take a sip of water.
6. _____ Sometimes I forget to lock the door.
7. _____ The cook did not notice when the rat fell in the soup.
8. _____ The turtle beat the hare at the race.
9. _____ None of the children slept during nap time.
10. _____ He pulled the sword out of the stone and then sold it on eBay.
11. _____ The dog chased after the tennis ball.
12. _____ The frightened squirrel scurried up the tree to his nest.
13. _____ The bear ate all the snacks in the car.
14. _____ The fireflies danced all summer night.